OFFICIAL CALL

Dear WFRW Board of Directors' Member,

This is the Official Call to the Washington Federation of Republican Women's 2019 Spring Board of Directors meeting on May 17-18, 2019 at the Howard Johnson Plaza, Yakima, WA.

As we celebrate Women's History Month, it is important to remember that we should honor and be proud of the many "pioneering" Republican Women that forged the trail of conservative values before us and stand together with our Federated Republican women that sacrifice their personal lives to battle in D.C.

On Friday, there are workshops on "The Life of a Ballot," and "How Can You Affect Change in Your Club as a Leader?" The club presidents' workshop led by our WFRW 2nd VP Gail Pappacostas will be highly interactive with a focus on tips for building a strong, growing and informed membership. Club Presidents, I'd like to encourage you to attend your workshop. If you are unable to attend, please send a proxy.

This year, we are replacing our traditional Friday night Winners' Circle reception with an "Everyone is a Winner" no-host reception before dinner. This way all attendees have the opportunity to socialize with Republican Women from around the state. Winners' Circle members – stay turned for information regarding the 2019 Winners' Circle program.

Washington Representative Jacquelin Maycumber will be our keynote speaker on Friday night. Representative Maycumber who is from the 5th Legislative District has an extremely interesting background and is always engaging. After all, she won the "Rising Star" award at this year's Roanoke Conference. Saturday's keynote speaker will be Chris Cargill, Washington Policy Center's Eastern Washington Director who is known around Eastern Washington as the expert in presenting the facts surrounding our State's political environment.

Many thanks to our WFRW 1st VP Colleen Wise for responding to the many requests to locate a facility that provides for a reasonable room rate and meal cost. In today's environment, it is difficult.

This meeting is extremely important as we will be electing our at-large delegates and alternates to represent us at the NFRW Biennial Convention to be held in Indianapolis on September 26-29. Please keep in mind that at-large delegates and alternates must be in good standing to be elected. What does that mean? You must have paid your 2019 dues and your club must have reported you to WFRW. Please contact WFRW's Membership Secretary Billie Jean Liedahl at hrhdotcom@msn.com to verify eligibility if you are interested in being nominated.

I know I'm repeating myself when I say that as an NFRW member, you can be proud to be part of a Federation that is the largest women's political organization in the country and has had political influence in Washington D.C. for the last 80 years.

We have a great schedule planned, and I hope you can join us!

Dee Drewry
WFRW President
